

America's Got Talent Finalist

Paul Salos

Brings Frank Sinatra Back to NJ
For his Birthday
SOLD OUT PERFORMANCE

On December 12, 2009 Frank Sinatra would have been 93 years old.

Paul Salos was booked to perform his Sinatra Tribute in Frank Sinatra's home State of New Jersey for a Sinatra fan club celebrating Sinatra's Birthday on December 12th.

Paul sang all of Sinatra's hit songs and presented a very special show for the Sinatra fan club called "Remembering Frank". This is a remarkable slide show portraying Sinatra in his younger years with Paul singing as the presentation is being shown. The slide show depicts Sinatra from his early career through his most successful peak years.

"Dear Paul, Thank you for the wonderful show you performed for us. Your extraordinary performance as "Frank Sinatra" was one that all of our Sinatra fans will not forget. All of us at The Women's Club thank you for a fantastic show!" R. Hartman, President DWC.

"Dear Mr. Salos, Thank you for coming to our Club House on Frank Sinatra's birthday. Mayor Fressola, his assistant Bob Pigott and councilman Warren Reiter were in attendance, as were 350 other very happy Sinatra fans. The show was excellent! The Sinatra songs you selected were perfect! Your "Remembering Frank" slide show as you sang was one of the most incredible presentations we had ever seen, as you could tell by the standing ovation you received after you finished. Everyone loved you and the show! You are very talented and the most complete "Sinatra" we have ever heard. It was like seeing the real "Frankie" again! You and your show was the most successful show we have ever had at our Club House. Thank you again for a wonderful and lovely evening 'with Frankie". E. Piller, Secretary, DWC, Whiting, New Jersey.
